Dear Sir or Madam,

HP, Inc. and Hewlett-Packard Development Company, LP (“Plaintiffs”) are suing you for, among other things, trafficking in counterfeit HP products. That lawsuit is pending in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of New York, which is located at 225 Cadman Plaza East, Brooklyn, New York 11201, before a District Court Judge, the Honorable Ann M. Donnelly.

There is presently a Temporary Restraining Order that freezes assets held in certain PayPal accounts. The Court has ordered any party that wishes to oppose the temporary restraining order from becoming a preliminary injunction to take action according to deadlines that are described in the provided Temporary Restraining Order, and as are summarized below:

Immediate Deadlines	Required Action
March 6, 2020	Deadline for a defendant to file and serve any papers in support of their opposition to the Temporary Restraining Order becoming a Preliminary Injunction.
March 13, 2020	Deadline for Plaintiffs to file and serve any papers in support of their Reply to a defendant’s opposition.
March 19, 2020 at 12:00	The Court will hold a hearing on whether there is cause for it not to issue a preliminary injunction at 225 Cadman Plaza East, Brooklyn, New York 11201 in Judge Donnelly’s courtroom.

Please note that I represent the Plaintiffs in this case. I cannot provide you with legal advice. Any questions that you may have should be addressed by your own lawyer, or by contacting the court.

Due to the size of the documents you are being served with, the papers are being split up and sent through six emails. In this email you will find the following court documents:

- (1) Civil Case Coversheet;
- (2) Summons
- (3) Amended Complaint;
- (4) Order Granting Leave to Serve by Email;
